Editors' Picks: 15 Things to See in New York This Week

Here's what's on our schedule this week.

Thursday, May 17–Saturday, June 23

7. Melanie Daniel: Late Bloomers at Asya Geisberg Gallery

For her fourth solo show at the gallery, the artist presents narrative paintings packed with psychedelic hues and papier mache sculptures of fantastical plants. Daniel introduces viewers to “a desolate sun-drenched paradise in the near future” where characters attempt to reconnect with nature and rebuild their world.
