

Our Curated Guide to Miami Art Fairs

Annabel Keenan

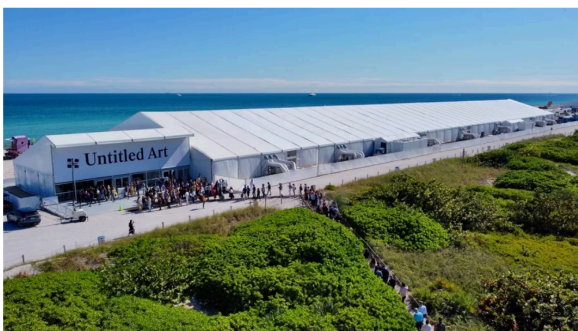

Nov 22, 2022 12:39PM

Untitled Art

Ocean Drive & 12th Street, Miami Beach

VIP Preview: Monday, Nov. 28

Public Days: Tuesday, Nov. 29–Saturday, Dec. 3

Exterior view of Untitled Art, 2021. Photo by Casey Kelbaugh. Courtesy of Untitled Art.

Sited directly on the sands of Miami Beach, Untitled Art is a highlight of the week because of both the art on view and the prime location. Untitled features established contemporary art dealers who show a strong selection of emerging and mid-career artists with international reach. The curation is always top-notch.

This year's edition of Untitled includes an impressive presentation of Ukrainian artists from the Kyiv-based Voloshyn Gallery (C34). Mixed-media works by Nikita Kadan will be on view, reflecting on the memory and history of war at large, in order to better understand the current conflict with Russia.

Another highlight will be Asya Geisberg Gallery's booth (B09), with new works by Marjolijn De Wit, Melanie Daniel, Rebecca Morgan, and Shane Walsh. Particularly captivating are De Wit's paintings, which are filled with ceramic objects that explore man's relationship with nature and the built environment.

Marjolijn De Wit
All Eyes on You #2, 2022
Asya Geisberg Gallery