

The Berkshire Eagle

FALL PREVIEW | ART

A colorful season for galleries, museums

Posted Friday, September 21, 2018 1:36 pm

By Jennifer Huberdeau, The Berkshire Eagle

GALLERY OPENINGS

Following close on the heels of the WCMA opening, are "SPECTRUM," at MCLA Gallery 51, "Canary Syndrome," at Ferrin Contemporary and "In The Retelling," at the Cynthia-Reeves gallery, all which open in tandem with the final DownStreet Art of the year.

"In The Retelling," Brooklyn-based artist Allison Gildersleeve will create an on-site collage installation at the Cynthia-Reeves gallery, located at 1315 Mass MoCA Way in North Adams.

Gildersleeve, who recently completed a month-long residency in London, will develop her collage installation from Sept. 25 to 29. The gallery will be open to the public during the creation of the collages, including a reception on Thursday, from 5 to 7 p.m. The public will be able to interact with the artist and observe the creation of the large scale collage work. An artist's reception will take place on Saturday from 5 to 7 p.m. The exhibit will be on view through Nov. 3.